Voter Registration Training - This Sunday at 1 pm!

Voter registration is a key initial step to ensuring that people exercise their right to vote; high voter turnout can help the US to improve equity and promote justice in our society. The Chalice Immigration Justice Task Force is sponsoring a training in voter registration. The one hour training session will be held at Chalice at 1300 on Jan 21. We would like to encourage those interested in assisting with voter registration in the coming year (or years) to attend the training session. We are also opening the training session to the North County Immigration Task Force, a Chalice social justice partner and the North County People Power group.

With these partners and others we will then explore the particular settings in Escondido and other areas of northern San Diego County to conduct voter registration efforts and provide a link for those interested to assist.

If you are interested in attending the voter registration training please let me know (email best for me). If we end up with a large group we will organize a second training session. At the present time we are not planning to have child care services available. We will have coffee and tea available.

Many thanks. Paul Courtright

10 am on Saturday - Women's March Bus

If you did not sign up for a seat on the bus, you can still meet us at Palomar College! Palomar College address is 1140 West Mission Road, San Marcos, CA 92069. The march starts at 11 am. Richard Korts will have a booth for people to learn about Chalice at the starting place. Stop by and say "Hi!"

Council of Chairs - Saturday, January 27 at 9:30 am

This Council of Chairs meeting will include a discussion of the congregation focus for the coming fiscal year. You are encouraged to think about what your group could do if there was money in the budget to reach your dreams."

The budget request forms will be distributed with a due date of March 3rd.
