Information the class leaders should be aware of (i.e.: allergies, health issues, medications):

Other parents, guardians, relatives or friends with permission to pick up child(ren) from Chalice UUC:

Parents / Guardians On Site:

Chalice offers Religious Education classes only for children who have an adult responsible for them on-site during class. We do not have a drop off program. Please monitor your child(ren) and young guests when they are not in Religious Education class.

Safety and Protection:

Chalice's Child and Youth Protection Policy requires that two adults be in attendance with children in most circumstances. A national criminal background check is required for all volunteers with the Religious Education Program.

Permission to Photograph:

Throughout the year, congregants at Chalice enjoy a variety of fun activities. We often take pictures with photographs or videotapes. Pictures may be used in a newsletter, slideshow, or posted on Chalice's public website or Facebook page. Pictures give children recognition as important members of our community and help them remember fun times together. Please see our Media Policy for more information. Please sign and check the appropriate box below:

- No, do not use pictures with my child's photograph in any publication or display at Chalice, or in any publications, websites, local or national Unitarian Universalist publications.
- Yes, you may use pictures with my child's photograph for Chalice internal communications ONLY.
- Yes, you may use pictures with my child's photograph for external communications (i.e., public).

NOTE: In accordance with our Media Policy: No personally identifiable information will be used in any external publication except when express consent is given by that minor's parent or guardian. For internal publications (offered only to Chalice Members and Friends), only the minor's first name and last initial should be used.

SIGNED CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR AGREEMENT

Respectful classroom behavior is expected. Please read and discuss this classroom behavior agreement with your child(ren).

1. Respect yourself.
2. Respect others.
3. Respect the environment (including the classroom).

Consequences for misbehavior:

- First time—Child will be given the letter "O" by the leader.
- Second time— Child will be given the letter "U" by the leader.
- Third time— Child will be given the letter "T" and will sit out until the leader invites them back into the activity. Parent(s) will be consulted after the session for advice and guidance.

Yes, we agree to abide by this agreement:
