R.E. Classes At First UU Church in San Diego

Is your family wondering which service to attend this coming Sunday at First UU Church in San Diego?

During the 9:30 am service, after the affirmation, children and their families will be invited to adjourn to the Chapel for a special Family Chapel. Adult family members are invited to come worship with us as a family, but may also opt to remain in the Meeting House for the remainder of the 9:30 am Service.

Youth in grades 6-12 are invited to meet from 10:45 am until noon in room 114b for another session of the Wizards of Wonder for YoUUth! There will be no 11:30 am YRUU (Sr. High) group meeting today, but youth and parents are invited to enjoy the worship service together.

Childcare will be provided during both the 9:30 and 11:30 services.

Feb. 3rd—Help Make Lunches for ICS!

Sunday, February 3 we will be making sandwiches for clients at Interfaith Community Services (ICS). Bonnie Packert is organizing this. Fred Lighthall arranged for us to use the Temple Adat Shalom kitchen, which has plenty of room, not the social hall. Sandwich making will start immediately after Sunday service on February 3 so we have time to finish and clean up and be out by 4:00.

A note from Rev. Sharon:

I still have five copies of Centering: Navigating Race, Authenticity, and Power in Ministry, edited by Rev. Mitra Rahnema, available to borrow. This is a collection of essays by Unitarian Universalist religious professionals of color. This book is also available for purchase from the UUA Bookstore and from Amazon.

If you'd like to borrow a copy from Chalice, please email me at revsharonwylie@gmail.com to arrange it.
