E-010 11th Annual Chalice Auction Camping Trip - May 10-12

Join us on May 10-12 for a multigenerational camping trip in the Anza Borrego Desert at Agua Caliente Regional Park, best known for its geothermally heated springs. There are spectacular vistas and miles of trails that meander through the park's canyons and across its hillsides. Enjoy swimming in one of two outdoor spring-fed pools or relaxing in the indoor spa (heated to 102°). Hike with Ranger Doug and learn about the local plants and geology. Take a side trip to explore slot canyons, mud caves or a desert oasis. Enjoy evenings relaxing around the group campfire and indulge in sweet s'mores. RV's, trailers and tents are all welcome. View the night sky through our 8" Celestron telescope. We'll provide the campsite, firewood, telescope, treats and guided excursion.

The price is $40 per vehicle, not per person in the vehicle. We are limited to 12 vehicles, but not 12 people.

12	Immense	$40 per vehicle	Metzger, Wendy & Doug Key

E-011 The Inquisitive Wine Event - Saturday, August 24, 5 pm

Great FUN, Good Wines, Good Food, and Great Company

There are over 10,000 varieties of wine grapes in the world. Even for one kind of grape, the flavor can vary greatly due to climate, soil, and even the surrounding vegetation. The wine from that kind of grape can vary with the skills and methods of the vintner. The possibilities are endless.

That well-known philosopher, Forrest Gump, tells us: My momma always said, "Life was like a box of chocolates. You never know what you're gonna get." Uncapping an unknown bottle of wine can be like that too. You never know what you're gonna get. Will it be disappointing? OR will it be wonderful. Sometimes the anticipation can be as fun as the tasting.

So join us to revisit some of our old favorites that we liked and tasted together in past gatherings. But this year we will pluck a few adventurous choices from the shelves. Things unknown -- unexplored -- a new kind of wine mystery. Come adventuring with us.

Will there be food to mix and match with these well-known and these unproven beverages? But of COURSE there will be!!

E-018 Karaoke Party - Saturday, September 14, 7 pm

Did you know that there are health benefits from singing? Would you like to lower your stress, improve your oxygenation, and stimulate your brain? Karaoke is the answer! Join the Fogels in belting out some tunes, with DJ Paul Cooper at the control panel. Can't sing? It doesn't matter! You can still enjoy the benefits of singing just by humming along and tapping your toes! The bar will be open, the snacks will be yummy, and the dance floor waiting! Be there or be square!

This is an adults only party.

E-019 Pizza Party - Saturday, August 3, 3 pm

Make your own pizza in Ralph's home-made cob oven (a domed adobe oven with a fireproof brick floor, heated with coals and hardwood). There is nothing like an artisanal pizza - with that slight char on the crust, the bubbling melted mozzarella, and the satisfaction of preparing it yourself. Mary and I will supply the instruction and wry commentary on preparation, the home-made pizza dough and sauce, a wide range of toppings (A to S - anchovies to basil to clams to garlic to mushrooms to olives to peppers to sausage, etc.), salads, and desserts. And of course, cold beer, wine and soft drinks. It will be a splendid afternoon-evening. Talk to Ralph for family rate.

E-022 La nueva cocina de Mexico - Saturday, March 30, 5 pm

Not the tacos of your childhood or even the Mexican food of San Diego! Mexican cuisine is ancient and complex, and this generation's chefs have taken tradition to new and exciting heights. We will take you on an unforgettable culinary journey using fresh locally-sourced and imported ingredients. Menu planning underway at time of publication, but will include appetizers, fresh seafood, huitlacoche (Mexican corn truffle), salad, dessert, and wines lovingly chosen from Baja's Valle de Guadalupe.

- E-030 Bilingual Guide to 6-course Tasting Menu at Misión 19 in Tijuana - Saturday, June 29, 12:30 pm
 Misión 19 is chef Javier Plascencia's flagship restaurant, leading his mission to identify and promote Baja California cuisine. Opened in 2011, it remains enormously popular among southern Californians, international visitors, and local Tijuaneños. Plascencia closed his San Diego restaurant Bracero Cocina de Raiz in 2017 to focus on his Baja restaurants, so the short drive to Tijuana is your nearest opportunity to enjoy his award-winning culinary creations. We will meet at 12:30 pm at the Rancho Peñasquitos Park-and-Ride and carpool to the international border, park cars in a $12 lot and then walk across the border, taking a $5 taxi ride to the restaurant, located in a secure high-rise office building in suburban Tijuana. Choose between the Classic tasting menu at $43 ($65 with wine pairing) or the Chef's tasting menu at $53 ($70 with wine pairing). All prices were current at time of publication but may change slightly based on exchange rate and menu selection. Menu items have included parfait of blue tuna or tuna ceviche, grilled octopus, local lobster, roast pork tacos or roast beef, risotto with huitlacoche, a seasonal course, and fabulous desserts. Check out <http://mision19.com/en/> for detailed descriptions and photos. You are bidding only on Kathy's organizational and guide services and will be responsible for all other expenses on the date of the event.

- E-033 "Fiesta!" - Sunday, November 3, 3 pm
 Inspired by the Dia de Los Muertos celebrations in Mexico. Families join together to honor and remember loved ones who have passed by making a "shrine" to invite their spirits to come and share gifts of food and sweets. This is an opportunity to share family stories, favorite songs, and eat special bread together. Guests, bring a photo of your loved one(s) for their shrine. "Ofrendas", offerings of food, and materials to make shrines will be provided.

$10 person or $30 per family.

Location: Chalice (unless construction is delayed)

G-040 Cinnamon Chocolate Torte

Dianne Decker-Houser is offering her incredible 14 Layer Cinnamon Chocolate Torte again this year. Some of you old-timers may remember it from years past, and some of you may have had a chance to try it at one of the Idell's parties last year. In any case, this is 14 luscious layers of a thin cookie alternated with chocolate whipped cream. The torte is wonderful for a large gathering.

T-071 San Diego Symphony Hall MOVIE NIGHT Tickets - Thursday, March 14

Excellent seats (a pair) in Row B of the Grand Tier - Thursday evening March 14, 2019. Winner of the first (and, sadly, last) Academy Award for Unique and Artistic Production, F.W. Murnau's Sunrise: A Song of Two Humans is one of the most critically acclaimed and influential films of the Silent Era, with modern movies as diverse as The Last Jedi and La La Land paying direct homage. A highly symbolic story of one eventful and terrifying night in the lives of an American everyman and his wife (George O'Brien and Janet Gaynor, the first Best Actress Oscar winner for this role), Sunrise contains bold gestures of Murnau's famous German Expressionist style married to the vivid cinematographic innovations of 1927 Hollywood. Organist Russ Peck accompanies this involving, dramatic work on the mighty Fox Theatre Pipe Organ.

T-086 San Diego Chamber Opera Tickets - Sunday, March 10 - Three Decembers

Excellent seats (a pair) in Row C (center) of the Orchestra at the Balboa Theater, Sunday afternoon March 10, 2019. Three Decembers is a modern masterpiece that explores the truth, lies, resentments, and ultimately the hopes of a family over the decades. With simple, yet profound, music that bares the souls of each character, this chamber opera is an intimate meditation on the family we wish for and the family we end up with. These performances feature the return of mezzo-soprano Frederica von Stade who reprises the role of Madeline that she created for the opera's world premiere.
